OLD BUSINESS

During the meeting several questions were asked about the status of changes and finalization of the Greene County subdivision regulations. This is still pending. More information is being gathered for a handout on OSHA safety regulations as they pertain to surveyors. The Missouri State University surveying classes are still looking for anyone wishing to donate surveying instruments for class use. There is now a requirement for PDU's in Minimum Standards before you can renew your license, more information to be forthcoming about the date of implementation.

NEW BUSINESS

We are looking for officers to fill next years positions anyone willing to assume an office please contact Christopher Strong, Jack Dill, Stephen Nelson, or Don Diehl to let them know. Additionally we are looking for suggestions for our Christmas Party location. Questions have come up in regard to anyone having problems with Christian County Planning and Zoning issues.
