IN MEMORIUM

All of us here at MSPS deeply regret the passing last month of Mike Parkhurst. He will be missed.

OLD BUSINESS

For the next Two months the Newsletter will be E-mailed and Hardmailed to help call attention to our June and July seminars On May 31 there will be a seminar at the CU third floor Classroom on the MO One Call Online Tickets. The Ozark Chapter is still looking for possible instructors to take over at SMSU for Gary Bockman. Trig Star participants will get a certificate not a plaque

NEW BUSINESS

Pete Stevens discussed this years scholarship applications that were handed out in Gary Bockman’s class. Only one application was returned. Les Wayne Pendergrass’s application was reviewed and approved. He will be awarded the $200 Scholarship at a future meeting. Seminar fees were reviewed and voted on to reflect a discount for MSPS members. For future Seminars the fee will be:

- $20 MSPS Members (preregistered)
- $40 Non-MSPS members(preregistered)
- $5 Late Registration Fee

On June 21 Tom Ray From City Utilities will be Talking about Surveying around utilities On July 12 be having a seminar with Cheryl Townlian from Burlington Northern on RR Safety and Gary McLarry from MODOT on Surveying Safety
